

Piano Teacher and Accompanist

Reddam House Constantia is looking for a vibrant, enthusiastic and innovative full-time/part-time piano teacher and accompanist starting in Term 2, 2023.

The incumbent should be a piano specialist and must be able to teach Year 1 to Year 12 piano students. They should also be able to accompany the school's choirs, as well as subject music students.

The prospective teacher must be available on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays for lessons.

Job Details:

- The applicant must be a passionate musician who will work towards instilling a love of music in their students.
- The applicant must be a competent accompanist and an experienced piano teacher.
- The applicant must be punctual for scheduled practice sessions, recitals, competitions, and other school music events.
- The applicant must be patient and have excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- The applicant must be student focused and must be able to motivate students to make steady progress.
- Having experience with choirs will be advantageous.

Job starting date: 10 April 2023

Applications should be accompanied by a covering letter and detailed CV to the Head of Music, Jade Thuynsma at jade.thuynsma@reddam.house

A qualification in music education would be advantageous. Applications close Friday, 24 February 2023.